FEDERAL DIRECT LOAN INTEREST RATES, DISBURSEMENT INFORMATION, and MAXIMUM LOAN AMOUNTS

Federal Direct Loans accrue interest and must be re-paid. For subsidized loans, the federal government pays the accrued interest while the student is enrolled at least half-time. The borrower is responsible for all accrued interest on unsubsidized loans. Current interest rates for Federal Direct Loans disbursed from 7/1/2021 to 6/30/2022 are listed below. Interest rates for Federal Direct Loans disbursed from 7/1/2022 to 6/30/2023 will be made available by the federal government by July 1, 2022.

Federal Direct Subsidized Loans	Undergraduate students	3.73%
Federal Direct Unsubsidized Loans	Undergraduate students	3.73%
Federal Direct Unsubsidized Loans	Graduate students	5.28%

Summer loans are disbursed in one installment at the beginning of your summer term. A 1.057% origination fee is deducted from the loan amount borrowed. For help determining how the origination fee will affect the amount of loan borrowed, please visit <https://financialaid.richmond.edu/types-of-aid/loans/calculator.html>.

Students cannot borrow more than the federally designated annual loan limit in an aid year (summer, fall, and spring terms). The Federal Direct Loan amount borrowed during the summer will reduce the amount students are eligible to borrow through the Federal Direct Loan program for the remainder of the academic year.
